

Folsom Softball Club Minimum Play Policy for Fall Ball

All rules and regulations will be based on the rules and regulations set forth by NorCal as amended by the following: The intent of this policy is to provide all players an opportunity for development during the fall ball season.

- Each player present at a game MUST play a minimum of two innings in the field and have at least one plate appearance in the first four innings of play.
- There are no positional requirements for the fall ball season.

CONSEQUENCE: If a coach is found in violation of the minimum play policy established herein, a disciplinary action will be recommended by the disciplinary committee and judged by the Board of Directors, including possible suspension or removal from coaching position.
